AY 2023 Fall Semester: Tsukuba Scholarship for Childcare

The University of Tsukuba accepts applications for “Tsukuba Scholarship for Childcare” from privately financed students.

1. Purpose

Based on the gender equality scheme, the purpose of this scholarship program is to improve study environments of students who are raising children by financially assisting them.

2. Eligibility

Students who meet all of the following requirements can apply for this scholarship:

- (1) Be enrolled in a full-time degree undergraduate or graduate program.
- (2) Be raising preschool children who are enrolled in a childcare institution in Japan. (*)
- (3) Be exempt from the residence tax, or paying less than 169,000 yen on income-based levy.
- (4) Not be receiving the Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho, or MEXT) Scholarship or any other scholarship whose amount is equivalent to or larger than it: undergraduate student 119,000 yen, Master’s student 146,000 yen, PhD student 147,000 yen.

*Note: In case of the children who attend an unlicensed childcare institution, please consult the staff of the Division of Student Welfare before you submit the application.

3. Period of Scholarship: From October 2023 until March 2024

4. Scholarship Allowance

The half of the actual monthly childcare tuition fee for a child care institution (*except the charge of school meal, or other expenses for additional services), up to 20,000 for each child, will be covered by the scholarship. The scholarship payment is not made on monthly-basis but lump-sum payment is made: once in half an academic year.

5. Required Documents
